Annual O. E. S. Xmas reception was held at the auditorium last evening. The hall was handsomely and artistically decorated with garlands, festoons and wreaths of evergreens. The center piece in the hall was a brilliantly decorated Christmas tree. Smaller sparkling trees were placed on each side of the stage. A most realistic snow scene was designed on the stage, with snow capped mountains, a snow village where Santa Claus resided.

Miss Emma Muennink and Magneron welcomed the guests. Miss Lula Chancey and committee members acted as hostesses at the 42 tables. A number of guests played 42 while others danced, and enjoyed the music furnished by the Hondo Band. A short play was delivered a broad address. A most delicious salad and dessert was served by Mrs. Eva Muennink and her hostesses.

rene Schweers entertained her friends at the home of Mrs. Alfred Schweers, on night. The young boys assembled and spent the evening playing Forty-two, Lotto and a new Chinese game, Mah Jong. After many interesting games were played, refreshments were served to the following: Misses Mary Fly, Leora Horger, Hedwig Schaefer, Marguerite Newton, Janet May, and Mary; Messrs. Homer King, Andrew, Earl McLaugherty and Foster and the hostess.

The Quihi community surely "put it over" Rev. and Mrs. Hasskarl of the Quihi Lutheran church last Wednesday night. The story runs this wise: While the reverend gentleman and wife were quietly entertaining a neighbor and family a large number of church members, neighbors and friends quietly assembled in the darkness on the church lawn, immediately before the parsonage. Led by Mr. Jacob Saathoff, this assembly struck up and sang with a will a beautiful song. This brought Rev. and Mrs. Hasskarl to the front door where they were met by the large crowd present and where Mr. George Heyen in a well set address explained the purpose of this meeting, which he termed "an old fashioned pound party". And such it surely proved to be, both in regard to the surprise and the pound—both were genuine. Practically everyone present was armed with some sort of a weapon to-wit: boxes, bundles, kettles, bags, etc. and with these in their arms or hands marched into the parsonage kitchen and "stacked arms". It is a question, whether or not the kitchen of this parsonage ever before contained such a large and varied lot of good things. At any rate, the pastor and wife expressed in warm words their sincere appreciation for the honor and kindness bestowed on

One of the real landmarks of this section of Medina County—and there were an impromptu program of songs and speeches followed. A number of hymns and songs were sung under the able direction of Mr. Jacob Saathoff, and with Mrs. Henry Schuehle presiding at the organ. The singing was interspersed with very stirring speeches by Mr. George Heyen, Prof. Saathoff and Rev. Hasskarl. In the midst of all this Mrs. Hy. Schuehle was made the unexpected recipient of a beautiful cut glass water pitcher and a half dozen glasses from the church choir as an expression of love and esteem. The night was warm and beautiful; the crowd present more than filled the church to its full capacity and made it for a few hours a place of song and cheer as it has not been for many years. Doubtless many sacred memory to the heart and returned to many as they lingered in and about this dear old building. Such community meetings are, as many of the speakers of the evening pointed out, very profitable to all of a community and help to bring the old and young closer together. All present will long remember this pleasant occasion.

The prizes offered by Mr. Esser for the best reasons why people should carry insurance was awarded by the committee appointed this week. The first prize, $5.00, was split between Clarence Haass and Wesley Martin, each receiving one-half the prize, the committee being unable to decide between the two. Horace Fohn and Frances Neuman, as second prize winners, were each awarded an annual subscription to the Anvil Herald.

One of the pleasant incidents of Christmas Day for Mr. and Mrs. P. Jungman was conversation with their sons, although one of them was more than a thousand miles away. Frank, in Kansas City, Missouri, timing himself, as he thought, to catch the whole family at home, rang up just after the noon hour to extend the season's greetings. The lady operator, on duty at the local exchange, knowing that Mr. Jungman was delayed at his office at the depot, cut him in also, and Mrs. Jungman and Arthur at home, and Mr. Jungman, at his office, engaged in a greatly enjoyed conversation with the absent member of the family. Mr. Jungman says Frank's voice was as distinct as if he had been face to face with him. He appreciates the thoughtfulness of the lady operator in "cutting him in" and also giving him the pleasure of hearing his son's voice, and realizes that science and invention has about eliminated distance.

The tribe of Hornung, with but one absent (Mrs. Kendrick of Boulder, Colorado), met around the festal board in San Antonio Christmas Day, with the patriarch of the tribe occupying the seat of honor. All the patriarch's descendants, including the second generation, with the exception noted above, were present and a great day was spent. It has been reported, but not confirmed, that Mr. Hornung ate so much at the meal that his cook has been given a month more holiday, waiting for the return of the old patriarch's appetite.

J. W. Ulbrich played Santa Claus to the Anvil Herald office Monday, and as a result of his visit the wolf has been drawn from the door for sometime. He left three turnips, but all his vehicle would bear up at one time, and set us to picturing that this county would accomplish the way of vegetable growing when becomes a farming section. The three brought to this office tipped the beam at fifteen pounds, and the wolf has abandoned his midnight revelries on the front porch for a more promising field.

San Antonio papers brought the news that Wm. Hein, a young painter who had been employed by M. H. Reymann here and was well known here was found in his room on San Fernando street in San Antonio with a fatal pistol wound in his head. Later reports say that the young man is still living and may recover. The accident happened on Christmas Day.

Gin Statistician J. P. Lippold reports 5,562 bales of cotton ginned in Medina County up to December 13, 1923. Up to the same date last year there had been ginned only 4,474 bales. This shows an increase for the 1923 crop over the 1922 crop of 1,008 bales. Thus 1923 has not been such an unkind year after all for Medina County farmers.

B. J. K. Oil Company will attempt to haul out and set casing in its well in Medina County on Saturday, if it doesn't rain between now and that time. A packer has been set in the bottom of the well and flow of salt water shut off and the well is said to be making oil and gas only at this time.

A few weeks ago the well came in on Sunday while the crew was off for the day, and began flowing oil at a depth a little below 900 feet. There was no casing on the ground and the roads have been impassable from incessant rains since that time. At the office of the company in the Jowdy Building Thursday, it was stated that an attempt would be made, at least, to haul out casing on Saturday if there is no more rain.

Fritz Fuch is reported to have let a drilling contract for a 1,500-foot hole on some acreage that he holds just west of the B. J. K. well. J. A. Heard of Fort Worth also is reported to have closed a deal for taking over and completing the Donaldson well, which is only about a mile from the discovery well in the field drilled by the Ina Oil Company.

Further reports from Medina County were that Jake Wolff had resumed work on his well on survey 532 and was making another effort to bring it in as a producer.

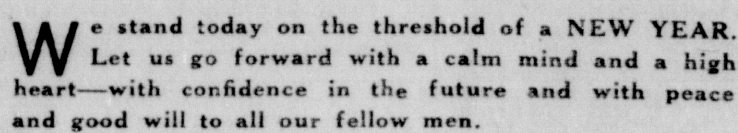

A derrick is reported to be up a location about five miles west from the Wolff well. It is in a locality where it was rumored the Humble would drill.—Friday's San Antonio Express.

Little Miss Jerline Ney, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Ney, was the only fire-works victim we have heard of in Hondo. While engaged in shooting Roman candles, one of them exploded in her hand, burning her on the neck, chest and arm. Her clothing was ignited by the explosion but was extinguished before injuring her. While Miss Jerline's burns are painful they have been pronounced by the physician who attended her as by no means dangerous.

Carter & Bader, Ford dealers, report the following deliveries since our last report:

John Sittre, Castroville, roadster;
Alfred Bader, Hondo, touring; Otto Bendele, Dunlap, one-ton truck.

Mrs. J. W. Wells and son and daughter, Courtney and Miss Frances, returned Thursday to their home at Austin after a several days visit to Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Heath.

HIGH SCHOOL ELEVEN SUFFER HEART-BREAKING DEFEAT AT HANDS OF "EX-STARS."

In one of the snappiest games
ever played upon a gridiron in Hondo, the pride of the high school and the joy of Bill Sartain suffered a cruel, crushing defeat. The old double-jointed veterans of past years and out-of-date ideas as to the ways of the game, came back and proved that the heroes of the past should be the heroes of the present.

High School kicked off and the Ex's began their flashing offensive.
Plays were carried out in quick succession, signifying long and enthusiastic training for the Ex-Students.
Suddenly, a most uncalled for thing happened (a fumble) and Hutzler,
the driving half recently developed by Bill Sartain, carried the ball across for a touchdown. High School failed to kick goal. Thus, the game started—the boys with the school-girl complexions standing above the used-to-be squad 6—0.

During the remaining three quarters the Ex's came back with their never ceasing steadiness, driving, driving down the field. Fly passed to Bendele for a long gain. An old-time 1921 off tackle play—and Bendele plunged for a touchdown. Past tense kicked goal and the score stood 7—6 in favor of the old timers.

During the remainder of the game neither side could score but it was very significant that those used-to-be boys could still strut their Tuxedos
upon the gridiron.

The game ended with boys "who use powder" trying to fight their way out of dangerous territory.

Stars for the high school were Windrow, Hutzler, Merriman, Neuman and Wilson brothers. These men stand out as the best example of "very good coaching" and, with a little more experience in old style playing, would probably be known as an all state selection.

The perfect team work of the Ex-
Stars makes it a difficult problem to make a selection, but still we will grant you that the signals they used were something to be proud of —so complicated and yet so simple and easy:

"Now Bob will take it this time around left"; now George open up a place in the center for Red"; "King, you don't want to carry it all the time"; "Earl is going around end
this time"; "come back fellows; now
Selby, George, Milton, Henry, Toby,
Charles, Wesley and Brother hold for its a punt"; "pass to Henry this time"; "Be sure and call time out after each play". That's the structure of the signals. You can draw your own conclusions.

With the blowing of the final whistle, many tears were shed by the worshipful ladies for their fallen heroes. Poor things, they hate to see the pride and the greatest defeated. But do not be discouraged, dear ladies, for it's all in the life of a grad—they will soon be the past tense too.

CHRISTMAS IN HONDO.

Christmas was more than usually quiet this year in Hondo. The muddy condition of the roads interfered very much with the usual holiday visiting. Nevertheless the occasion brought joy to most of our homes.
The young people away attending college or teaching in other schools came home and many family circles
were again united for the first time in several months.

Christmas programs and Christmas trees were given at both the Baptist and the Lutheran churches Christmas eve, and the usual midnight service was held at the Catholic church.

An informal dance was enjoyed by a few of the young people at the Legion Club hall in the early hours of the evening.

In many of the homes Christmas trees gladdened the hearts of the little ones.

And Christmas Day, balmy and bright for the most part, was observed with elegant dinners and family gatherings. The business places were closed up and every body took a holiday.

A foot ball game in the afternoon
between ex-players and the high school team was the only public amusement during the day.

In the evening (Tuesday) a number from here attended dances at Castroville and other places.

QUIHI NOTES.

Christmas was celebrated very nicely at Bethlehem Lutheran church.
On Christmas Eve, at the side of a beautiful Christmas tree, an excellent program of songs and recitations was rendered, and well filled bags were given the boys and girls. On Christmas day a proper and appropriate service was held in the church.

Next Monday at 7:00 P. M. a Sylvester service will be held in the Lutheran church. It is the last eve of the year and all should attend
this service.

On January 2nd, at 2:00 P. M., the annual congregational meeting
will be held in the church.

On New Year's Day Divine service will be held in the church and the holy communion celebrated.

A CORRECTION.

In our hurry of making up the paper last week we made the mistake of stating in Mr. John Wiemers' turkey advertisements that turkeys would be delivered for 20 cents per pound when it should have read 15 cents. We regret this unfortunate error and hope that it was not the cause of any one missing a turkey dinner. Mr. Wiemers is still offering choice turkeys delivered at your door for 15 cents per pound. See his notice elsewhere.

STOCKHOLDERS' NOTICE.

fore the meeting. This is a very important meeting. Please make it a point to attend.

TO THOSE IN ARREARS.

Most of our subscribers renew their subscription, but there are some who settle up annually in the fall and occasionally some one over-looks this little matter and lets a year or two slip by unnoticed. This little reminder is to request all who can to remember the printer when making their fall settlements. Fair crops and good prices have made money fairly easy for most people. Pay these small amounts to the printer
and make it "easier" for him.

We thank you—now!

SOME GOOD DESSERTS

A good pie is always a welcome dessert and if one observes the kind of pie usually in demand at most eating places the apple pie takes the lead. A good pie must have a crust rich enough to be tender and flaky and baked long enough to be thoroughly cooked. The best cooks say that a pie should bake (after the first few minutes in a hot oven to bake the crust, then in a slow oven to cook the apples) usually an hour. The filling of apple with a little sugar for sweetening is not sufficient to make a tasty pie. It needs butter and plenty of it in small cubes mixed with the apple and if the pie is made of very juicy apples, a tablespoonful of flour will keep it from losing its delicious juice. Such flavor, as is suited to the family, may be used—nutmeg, cinnamon, a dash of cloves or a bit of grated lemon peel. Then after the pie is ready for the oven bind it with two and one-half-inch strip of thin muslin dipped into cold water; this insures the pie from any overflow of juice. This cloth should be removed at once when the pie is taken from the oven.

Pineapple Jelly.—Pour two cupfuls of boiling water over one-half cupful of sugar and add two tablespoonfuls of gelatin soaked in two tablespoonfuls of cold water for five minutes; then add one cupful of pineapple juice drained from canned pineapple, and three tablespoonfuls of lemon juice. Strain. When the mixture begins to thicken, add one and one-third cupfuls of pineapple cubes. Turn into a mold, first dipped into cold water and chill thoroughly.

Newport Pudding.—Boil one cupful of sugar with one cupful of water for three minutes. Add one tablespoonful of gelatin soaked in one-fourth of a cupful of cold water. Beat the mixture as it begins to thicken, then add the whites of three eggs beaten stiff and continue beating twenty minutes. Divide the mixture into thirds, flavor and color to suit the taste. Arrange in layers in a mold.

GOOD THINGS FOR OCCASIONS

An appetizing sandwich which is not common may be prepared as follows:

Remove the crusts from bread and spread with horseradish butter. To make this, cream six tablespoonfuls of butter and add, gradually, four tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish root, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, and salt and a dash of cayenne.

Raisin Fritters.—Scald two cupfuls of milk with one-inch stick of cinnamon. Mix one-half cupful of sugar, one-quarter cupful of cornstarch, three tablespoonfuls of flour, one-half teaspoonful of salt and one-quarter cupful of cold milk. Add the scalded milk and cook ten minutes, then add the yolks of three eggs and one-third of a cupful of raisins cooked until plump in a little fruit juice, then cut into small pieces. Turn into a pan, spread evenly and cool. Remove from the pan, cut into squares or diamond shapes, dip into crumbs and egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat. Serve hot with a fruit sauce.

Egg Ramekins.—Half-fill buttered ramekins with hot-boiled rice, drop an uncooked egg in each, sprinkle with salt, paprika and grated cheese or chopped boiled ham. Set in a pan containing boiling water, cover and bake in a moderate oven until the eggs are set.

Washington Pie.—Bake two layers of layer cake; put together with sweetened and flavored whipped cream. Serve cut in pie-shaped pieces.

Corn, Southern Style.—To one can of chopped corn add two eggs, slightly beaten, one teaspoonful of salt, a dash of cayenne pepper, two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, one pint of scalded milk. Turn into a buttered baking dish and bake in a slow oven until firm.

Baked Potatoes.—Choose even-sized potatoes, scrub well and bake until soft. Slash in two-inch gashes at right angles on the flat side of each potato. Press to force the potato through the opening; drop a half tablespoonful of butter into each and sprinkle with paprika.

"Built Me Up"

"I USED Cardui for years and it did me more good than any medicine I ever used," writes Mrs. M. C. Ragsdale, of Fort Towson, Okla. "I used to suffer with womanly trouble that weakened me until I was a mere shadow, nervous, and could not sleep. I did not feel like I could live."

"It seemed that nothing helped me till I heard of Cardui and began to use it. It strengthened me and, as 'twas recommended to do, it regulated and built me up till I was like another woman."

If you are weak, run-down and feel that you need a tonic, take Cardui, the woman's tonic, the tonic about which you have always heard, the tonic that helps weak women regain their strength.

Cardui acts on the womanly system and helps relieve pain and discomfort due to female ailments.

WHAT DO YOU READ EVENINGS?

With old Sol tucking himself into bed early, there will be lots of time for evening reading in the next few months. It's wisdom to lay in a supply of good books and magazines now.

Here is one of the best bargains of its kind in the world:

THE OPEN ROAD

an interesting monthly magazine, and your choice of one of these famous books:

Blazed Trail Stewart Edw. White
The Trimmed Lamp O. Henry
Lord Jim Joseph Conrad
Return of Sherlock Holmes C. Doyle
Haunted Bookshop Chris. Morley
Magnificent Ambersons B. Tarkington
Ivanhoe Sir Walter Scott
Alice's Adv. in Wonderland L. Carroll
Separately they would cost $3.40, but the combination price is only $2.60.

The books are full size, richly bound in English red leather, and beautifully printed,—a splendid addition to your library or a fine Christmas gift for your best friends.

The Open Road comes 12 times a year. It's a magazine that hits the "men folks" just right, and the women and girls are reading it with equal interest. Stirring stories of life in great cities, in the deep woods and on western plains fill the pages of The Open Road, also articles on business opportunities, athletics, exploration and adventure in far countries, and on the personal problems of life. President Coolidge has recommended The Open Road highly.

It's a helpful as well as an entertaining magazine,—just what your family will enjoy.

MORE ABOUT FOOD

For those who like tripe the following recipe will prove a pleasant change:

Sauteed Tripe.—Cut honeycomb tripe into pieces for serving and parboil eight minutes, using equal parts of milk and water. Drain, sprinkle with salt and pepper, roll in flour, and saute in butter in a hot iron frying pan. Remove to a hot platter and garnish with lemon slices and parsley.

Smoked Fish Canapes.—Cut stale bread into one-fourth inch slices, remove the crusts and cut into oblongs four by three inches; then saute in olive oil until delicately browned. Arrange on each slice lengthwise alternate pieces of smoked salmon and herring, using two on each. Pipe around a border of creamed butter, seasoned with anchovy and lemon juice.

Washington Pie.—Cream one-fourth cupful of butter with one cupful of sugar, add two well-beaten eggs and one-half cupful of milk. Mix two and one-half teaspoonfuls of milk with one and two-thirds cupfuls of flour and add to the first mixture. Beat well and bake in layer tins. This will make two layers. Put together with raspberry jam and top with powdered sugar.

Marshmallow Pudding.—Dissolve one tablespoonful of gelatin in one cupful of boiling water, add one cupful of sugar and as soon as dissolved set the bowl into a pan of ice water. Add three egg whites beaten stiff and one and one-half teaspoonfuls of vanilla. Beat until the mixture thickens. Turn into a shallow pan and let stand until chilled. Cut into pieces the size and shape of marshmallows, roll in macaroon crumbs and serve with cream.

Planked Club Steak.—Wash one-half cupful of butter and add one-half tablespoonful each of finely chopped red pepper, green pepper and parsley, one-fourth of a tablespoonful of finely minced onion and one-half tablespoonful of lemon juice. Spread one-third of the mixture on the center of the plank and arrange piped, mashed potatoes around the edge. Pan-broil a steak for four minutes and remove to the hot plank. Put into the oven to finish cooking.

THE SEASON'S GOOD THINGS

The oyster is now in the market, and those who are fond of the tender little morsels will enjoy some different ways of serving them.

Oysters With Macaroni.—Cook three-quarters of a cupful of macaroni until tender, broken into one-inch pieces. Salt well and put a layer of the macaroni into a well-buttered baking dish; cover with one pint of oysters, dredge with flour, salt and pepper and dot with two tablespoonfuls of butter. Repeat and finish the top of the dish with buttered crumbs. A half-cupful of milk or thin cream may be added if the dish does not seem moist enough. Bake twenty minutes in a hot oven, or long enough to cook the oysters.

Cheese Pudding.—This makes a most nourishing luncheon or supper dish. Take slices of stale bread, cut into finger-shaped pieces and spread with butter. Arrange around the sides of a buttered baking dish, having the strips reach an inch above the dish, and line the bottom with the strips of bread. Beat two eggs until broken; add one cupful of thin cream or rich milk, one tablespoonful of butter, one teaspoonful of salt, one-half teaspoonful of mustard, a few dashes of cayenne and one-half pound of mild cheese cut into small pieces. Pour the mixture into the dish very carefully, not to displace the bread around the edges, and bake until the custard is set. Be careful not to bake in too hot an oven, or the cheese will be stringy and hard to digest.

Indian Tapioca Pudding.—Soak five tablespoonfuls of pearl tapioca two hours in cold water. Pour four cupfuls of scalded milk over four tablespoonfuls of cornmeal, cook in a double boiler until the mixture thickens. Add the tapioca drained and three-fourths of a cupful of molasses, three tablespoonfuls of butter and one and one-half teaspoonfuls of salt. Turn into a buttered dish and cover with one cupful of cold milk. Do not stir. Bake one and one-fourth hours in a moderate oven.

SEASONABLE FOODS

As the wild fowl and other game are to be had at this season it is well to consider a few ways of preparing and serving it.

Wild duck, rice hens and birds that eat both grains and fish are often rather gamey in flavor.

To remove some of the strong flavor, parboil them in water to which has been added a sliced carrot, an onion or two sliced, and a half bunch of celery. When tender remove and fry brown in deep fat, using butter and lard; season well and serve with sliced oranges and French dressing for a salad, or with finely shredded cabbage dressed with sugar, vinegar and rich cream. Drop the cabbage after shredding in cold water to become crisp, then drain, add the seasoning of salt, sugar and vinegar and enough cream to make a good dressing.

A young fowl after parboiling may be roasted until brown in a hot oven. Brush with butter and roast with an onion or a piece of celery in the cavity of each, which is removed before serving.

Apple, Onion Salad.—Take a slice or two of Spanish onion, chop fine and add to half a dozen finely diced apples and a cupful of minced dates. Season with salt and dress with any good boiled dressing. Serve on lettuce leaves or garnish with a bit of parsley.

Los Angeles Dressing.—Beat four egg yolks, add one-fourth of a cupful of olive oil, one tablespoonful of lemon juice, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of vinegar, one teaspoonful each of mustard and salt, a dash of cayenne. Cook in a double boiler, stirring well until the mixture thickens. Chill and add a cupful of heavy cream beaten stiff and one and one-half tablespoonfuls of grated horseradish.

Here's Proof That Advertising Pays

Famous Wrigley Building in Chicago Being Doubled in Size

The part of the Wrigley Building erected two years ago has filled such a want that the north section, nearly double the floor area of the south section, is being added.

This north section, nearly completed, occupies the entire block, immediately across North Water Street, fronting on Michigan Avenue and reaching to the height of the main part of the first structure, with a connecting bridge.

The space in the new section is already nearly all taken by high-class firms in advance of the completion of the building.

Here is a concrete (as well as a steel and glass) proof of the saying that "advertising pays." In these magnificent buildings Mr. Wrigley has erected an impressive testimonial to this great truth. They loom large and beautiful. They typify the achievements of the man who built them. They stand as a monitor over the activity of the Nation's second city—inspiring—dominating—massive—bearing unanswerable testimony to the POWER OF ADVERTISING.
